

Magnificat for 14th Sunday after Pentecost

The a - post - les worked many signs and wonders, shar - ing pos-ses-sions and pray - ing to - ge - ther. Al - le - lu - ia

My soul magnifies the Lord's greatness, | and my spirit rises within me at the thought of God my Saviour.

As he has seen the humility of his servant, | so future generations will all call me blessed.

Glorious and powerful, he has made me stronger: | and his name is holy.

Never-ending mercies fall on all | who fear him.

In his strength he has wielded strength; | he has undone the proud through their own self-importance.

From their seats of power the mighty have been thrown; | he has lifted the humble.

In his goodness he has given food to the hungry; | cowering, the rich have been sent away with nothing.

All his people, from ancient times, have been supported by him: | that was the promise he made to Abraham, and all our ancestors, for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son | and to the Holy Spirit.

As it is, always has been and always will be, | through the infinite ages. Amen.