Psalm

Abmaj7 Gm7 Fm7 Bb9 Ebmaj7

O Lord, put your ear close so that you can hear me: | for I am poor, and in need.

Save my life, for I have been good and holy. Keep me safe, for you are my God | and I am your servant, who trusts in you.

Lord, be merciful to me, | for I call out to you all the day long.

Be joyful in the soul of your servant, | because I lift up my soul to you.

For you, Lord, are good and forgiving. | You are lavish in your mercy to those who call on you.

Open your ear to my prayer, | listen to my voice when I plead to you.

I will call on you in that day when I am in trouble, | and you will answer me.

There is none like you among the Gods. | Nothing compares to the things you have done.

All the nations you have made will come and bow before you | and will glorify your name.

For you are great, | and you alone, O God, do wondrous things.

Lord, teach me your way and I will walk surrounded by your truth. | Make my heart fear your name.

I will praise you, O Lord my God, with all my heart; | and I will glorify your name for all time.

For your mercy is great towards me; | you have rescued my soul from the depths of Hell.

O God, the arrogant have risen up against me, | and a violent mob has sought my life - they did not have you as their guide.

But you are the Lord. You are a compassionate God. | Gracious, slow to anger and rich in mercy and truth.

Turn to me, and have mercy on me. | Give me, your servant, your strength and save me, your servant's son.

Show me a sign of your goodness, so that those who hate me can see it and be ashamed | because you, O Lord, have helped me and comforted me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son | and to the Holy Spirit.

As it is, always has been and always will be, | through the infinite ages. Amen.
